

Paddle the Navesink Day

A community-wide celebration of the river

September 18, 2010

Start: Maple Cove, 11 a.m.

End: Marine Park, 3 p.m.

Come to Maple Cove in Red Bank to

- ★Walk along the Navesink River to see what Red Bank offers in kayaking, canoeing, sailing, rowing, and adult/children boating programs.
- ★Demo different types of kayaks with Jersey Paddler.
- ★Take a free kayaking lesson from a certified instructor.
- ★Try rowing at Navesink River Rowing.
- ★Play tennis on Red Bank's historic clay courts.
- ★Take a sailboat ride and have a hotdog or hamburger at the historic Monmouth Boat Club.
- ★Take a tour of the North Shrewsbury Ice Boat Club and view a pictorial history of the Navesink River.
- ★Tour the Adam Hyler, an oyster baymen's boat.

Bring the kids for seining, playing in a touch pool, making fish prints, and canoeing.

Local businesses will offer discounts and samples.

Participating organizations and businesses include Monmouth Boat Club, Navesink River Rowing, the Navesink Maritime Heritage Association, Friends of Maple Avenue, North Shrewsbury Ice Boat Club, the American Littoral Society, Clean Ocean Action, Friends of the Clearwater, the Red Bank Clay Courts, Front Street Trattoria, Boondocks, Nima Oriental Rugs, Muscle Maker Grill, WOW, Edible Arrangements, and Wayne's Market.

For information, call Cindy Burnham at (732)241-9532 or Linda Ensor at (732)693-3067.